Jersey City Classic Car Show to Raise Money for Homeless Veterans on September 22
The event is on September 22 at City Hall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All proceeds will be donated to help house homeless veterans in Jersey City.

The City of Jersey City and the Korean War Veterans of Hudson County are hosting a Classic Car Show on September 22, 2018. The free event will run from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at City Hall Plaza, 280 Grove Street, Jersey City, NJ 07302. All proceeds from this nonprofit effort will be donated and earmarked solely for Jersey City's House the Homeless Veterans Initiative. In the words of Mayor Fulop, "One homeless veteran is too much."

The cars displayed will include the 1930 Cadillac once owned by legendary mayor Frank Hague, and the 1969 Ford Mustang seen in the John Wick films. The car show will also feature live music, food trucks, a 50/50 raffle and trophies for top cars. Cars from 1975 or older can be pre-registered for the event. For more information, please contact one of the co-organizers: Frank Carabellese at (732) 215-5973 or Stan Eason at (201) 376-2788.

Donations and sponsorship are still being accepted. All donations are tax-deductible and should be addressed to The Korean War Veterans of Hudson County/Homeless Vets, 435 Liberty Avenue, Jersey City, NJ 07307. See the attached letter and flyer for details.
